

As a specialist property auctioneer to leading independent and boutique agents, Kate has been auctioneering in all regions of the state over the past decade.

Growing up in a family real estate business operating over 35 years she was exposed to all facets of the industry from an early age, enjoying sales and business operations.

Carving her profession from extensive experience in property and performance she combines the finely honed craft of auctioneering to deliver an unsurpassed service and results for her clients.

Awarded finalist 'Auctioneer of the Year' in the Real Estate Business Awards 2013 and 2014 and taking out 3rd place in Australia's Premier Auctioneer Competition is testimony to her commitment and performance achievements. She is regarded as 'Australia's Best Female Auctioneer.'

Having judged REIA Australasian Auctioneer's Championship that brings together the best in the country, she has represented the industry on the REINSW Board and the Auctioneer's Chapter regularly speaking at events as an accredited auctioneer and trainer. This ensures she is kept fully informed and equipped with the latest legislative requirements and strategies for you to be up-to-date and in front of our changing market place.

With Kate you don't just win, you come first.

" The difference that makes the difference "

*" We were so pleased we secured Kate as our auctioneer!
She has a unique way of making people feel comfortable and relaxed. An extremely experienced professional she worked in synergy with our agents*

- Julie Harris, Mosman