

Winner of the highest industry accolade '2014 Australian Auctioneer of the year'

Commencing Auctioneering with Livestock and transitioning to Real Estate in 1998. Will is a career auctioneer who loves what he does.

Will is a professional auctioneer to agents across Sydney, surrounding NSW and the ACT with over twenty years of experience having commenced his career in 1995.

In 2014 Will Hampson is the Australian Real Estate Awards Auctioneer of the year. He was a finalist for this prestigious award in 2013.

He has been directly involved in thousands of auctions as both an auctioneer and marketing agent

It is this experience that enables his clients to achieve great results. As a director of 'My Auctioneer' Will provides a platform for his services as a leading auctioneer and results driven coach. He works closely with his agents providing personalised service throughout the auction campaign.

As an auctioneer Will is enthusiastic, exciting and high energy. He engages buyers and crowds whilst obtaining the best possible result for the vendor and marketing agent he is working for, as well as raising thousands of dollars for charity auctions. During his career Will has achieved a number of record price sales and numerous industry awards.

Will is dedicated to achieving the best possible price for the sale of your property as well as making the auction sale process an enjoyable experience. As testament to this he receives many repeat clients and referrals.

“Experience that counts”

“Thanks again for your amazing performance in getting us a result that was above and beyond our highest hopes! Your confidence, enthusiasm, good humour and highlighting of the best aspects of our property made the bidders responded accordingly. We would recommend you in a flash to anyone looking for an auctioneer!”
